Amit for bringing transparency through usage of e-Governance

JAMMU: Amit Sharma, Director Food, Civil Supplies & Public Affairs Jammu on Tuesday held a meeting with top brass team of National Informatics Centre (NIC) J&K, master trainers of all ten districts of Jammu Division and officers of the department regarding improvisation and leading IT reforms in the department and bringing transparency through usage of latest techniques of e-Governance.

Director FCS&CA Jammu, Amit Sharma had a detailed meeting on lot of issues relating to ongoing softwares developed by NIC such as e-PDS, Supply Chain Management System alongwith all specialists of the domain including Abhay Kumar. Besides, State Informatics Officer, J&K NIC, Sunil Koul, Scientist 'E' J&K NIC, Pawan Kumar, Joint Director, Mohammad Iqbal Zargar, Joint Director Planning, Joginder Jasrotia, Deputy Director, Kulraj Singh, Deputy Director, Master Trainers of all districts and IT Experts of F,CS&CA

Director F,CS&CA, Amit Sharma chairing a meeting.

Department of Jammu Division were also present.

The meeting lasted over five hours wherein lot of brainstorming happened between Officers of FCS&CA headed by Director Amit Sharma and NIC Team led by Abhay Kumar and subsequently, several important decisions were arrived at relating to Enablement of New Ration Card Application Forms, Developing a Mobile App for Jammu Division for increasing Aadhaar Seeding, Cashless Transactions in department through PoS, Mapping of FPS with concerned TSOs, Updating of Aadhaar with Ration Cards on ePDS at the earliest, etc. It was also decided that the helpline number of FCS&CA of Jammu Division 1800 180 7106 for 24x7x365 Public Grievance Redressal shall be given wide publicity to register their issues relating to ration distribution, unfair practices relating to pricing of goods & services, consumer awareness, etc. and the same shall be displayed in bold letters at all fair price shops of the division.